THIS SUNDAY'S REFLECTION

Matthew 10:26-33

The prophet Jeremiah was forsaken by his own friends, who watched his every step, waiting for him to fall. At such times, God seemed far away. Jesus brings God's love near. He instructed his apostles to be courageous as they shared his mission of announcing God's reign. Despite the coming darkness and opposition, they were to be fearless in proclaiming the light and truth of the gospel. Fear of persecution and death should not deter them. They should be more afraid of the evil one who could lead them to eternal destruction. Jesus encouraged his followers by reminding them of their worth before God. If a single sparrow could not fall to the ground without God noticing it, how much more would God watch over them? If the apostles remained faithful to their witness, Jesus would testify to their fidelity at the final judgment. We should not hide in the darkness trembling in fear. We should climb to the rooftops and shout the good news: "The kingdom of heaven has come near."

For Reflection: Can I trust God to take care of me today? Can I place tomorrow in God's hands?

PASTORAL PLANNING PRAYER

Loving God, Author of Creation,
your spirit pervades and enriches our world.
Through your Son, who shares our humanity,
you have called us to participate in your divine creativity
and to build the kingdom of God here on earth.

Form us, we pray, as one community
under the leadership of our bishop
to serve all the people of this region in your name.

Inspire us to discover new ways
and structures to spread your Gospel.
Open our eyes to see Christ in others,
especially the poor, the sick and the marginalized.
Empower us to be the hands and feet of Christ
in our parishes and communities.
Help us to welcome all into His embrace.

Guide us in our discernment,
as we pray with Pope Francis
for the vision to see new paths of possibility;
for a spirit of mission that invigorates our every effort;
and for the strength to be unafraid of what is new.
We ask this through Christ, our Lord. Amen.
