THIS SUNDAY'S REFLECTION

Mark 9:2-10

“Ready!” we say when we are willing to take the plunge into God’s saving power. Before we do, we better know what sort of commitment we are making. Can we be like Abraham, who did not withhold anything from God? Abraham bound his son and laid him on the alter, but he also bound his heart and will to God. Because Abraham was faithful to God, God was faithful to Abraham and all generations are blessed in him.

Jesus invites us to go up the mountain with him to show us how bright things can be in the midst of darkness. Though a cloud overshadows the light, we hear God’s voice, “This is my Son, this is my daughter, my beloved, Listen to him.” As we come down the mountain, we wonder what it means to die. What does it mean to rise from the dead?

God the Father did not withhold Jesus the Son from suffering and death but offered him for the sake of us all. If we walk in the presence of the Lord, then God will release us from our bondage to sin, and we, who appeared to be dead, will walk in the land of the living. Since God is ready to do that for us, we can say with Paul, “If God is for us, who can be against us?”

For Reflection: What have I offered to God? How has God rewarded by obedience?

Social Justice Committee News

In February, we will focus on the sanctity of marriage and family.

Pope John Paul II on the family as the "sanctuary of life."

"The family has a special role to play throughout the life of its members, from birth to death. It is truly the sanctuary of life: the place in which life -the gift of God- can be properly welcomed and protected against the many attacks to which it is exposed, and can develop in accordance with what constitutes authentic human growth".

Lenten Parish Mission with Dan Schutte - March 11-13 at 7p.m.

Join us for our Lenten Parish Mission with Dan Schutte March 11-13. Schutte is one of the best known and most influential composers of Catholic music for liturgy in the English speaking world. Some of his most celebrated songs include: "Here I Am, Lord," "City of God," and "Sing a New Song," - are from his years of collaboration with the Saint Louis Jesuits.

Dan has served as liturgist and music director to various pastoral and academic settings. That experience, his deep knowledge of Sacred Scripture, and a strong sense of Ignatian spirituality form the basis of every event he leads. His ministry has had an enormous impact on the spiritual journey of millions of people, and we look forward to welcoming him this March. If you wish to attend, but need a ride call the Parish Office at 899-5342.
