THIS SUNDAY'S REFLECTION

Mark 14:1-15:47

True prophets do not rebel against their call. Though others decline to speak on behalf of God, they let nothing deter them from their mission, even when it seems as though God has abandoned them. Although ears are closed to their message, the prophets steadfastly proclaim God's tidings to the assembly. This is the attitude of Jesus. He did not regard power and authority as something to be held with a tight fist. Rather, he opened his hand and emptied himself, pouring out his humanity to become a servant to his brothers and sisters.

Unlike Jesus, we are not always submissive. At the table we betray him, despising the body with whom we have gathered. We say "Amen" to the cup with little understanding that we are saying "Yes" to dying to self like Jesus. Obedient in all things, he bound his will to God and did not turn away from death, even the disgraceful death on a cross. Willingly, he drank the dregs of the chalice of suffering and poured out his blood on our behalf.

Because Jesus was faithful, God exalted him, raising him above heaven and earth, giving him the name above all names. Our hearts and knees bow at his name. Our tongues proclaim to the glory of God: "Jesus Christ is Lord!"

For Reflection: Do I proclaim the Lord's death when I eat the bread and drink the cup? How can I offer hope to a hopeless world?

Social Justice Committee News

Human Dignity

Human dignity is something that can't be taken away. Catholic Social Teaching states that each and every person has value, is worthy of great respect and must be free from slavery, manipulation and exploitation. "Catholic social teaching believes that human beings, created in the image and likeness of God (Genesis 1:26-27), have by their very existence an inherent value, worth, and distinction." Daniel Groody "Globalization, Spirituality and Justice"
