THIS SUNDAY'S REFLECTION

John 17:11b-19

As Jesus is about to be taken out of the world, he prays that God will bless his followers and make them holy in the same way that God consecrated him—by means of truth. In Jesus's relationship with this loving Father, the human and divine dwell as one. He prays that this unity will be made manifest in his disciples. Like a good shepherd, Jesus kept careful watch over his flock. He prays that they will continue to be safeguarded from evil. He knows that when he is no longer physically present, the community will be torn apart by doubt, mistrust, and betrayal. God's spirit will be the binding power that keeps them together.

Although no one has ever seen God, in Jesus we are able to see God's saving presence. Through Jesus, we are given a glimpse of God's reign. With Jesus, we experience an intimate knowledge of God's love. By living authentic lives of love and fidelity, we will understand the true meaning of our baptism. As one people, we are sent to sanctify the world with God's grace and truth to share not only Christ's passion but also his joy.

For Reflection: How have I revealed the truth of God's love? Is my community one of unity or of discord?

Social Justice Committee News

In this month of First Eucharist celebrations, Mother's Day and graduations, this corner will explore the teaching of Scripture and the Catholic Church on the dignity of children.

The situation of a vast number of the world's children is far from being satisfactory, due to the lack of favorable conditions for their integral development despite the existence of a specific international juridical instrument for protecting their rights, an instrument that is binding on practically all members of the international community. These are conditions that are connected with the lack of health care or adequate food supply, little or no possibility of receiving a minimum of academic formation or inadequate shelter. Moreover, some serious problems remain unsolved; trafficking in children, child labor, the phenomenon of "street children", the use of children in armed conflict, child marriage, the use of children in the commerce of pornographic material, also in the use of the most modern and sophisticated instruments of social communication. It is essential to engage in a battle at the national and international levels, against the dignity of boys and girls caused by sexual exploitation, by those caught up in pedophilia and by every kind of violence directed against these most defenseless of human creatures. These are criminal acts that must be effectively fought with adequate preventive and penal measures by the determined actions of the authorities involved. (Compendium of the Social Doctrine of the Church #245)

Remember the most vulnerable in our midst when you vote in the primaries this week.

Children's Liturgy of the Word

The Children's Liturgy of the Word Ministry is in need of volunteer leaders. If you enjoy working with young children but do not have the time to commit to a weekly RE class, this ministry may be perfect for you. CLW Leaders conduct the Liturgy of the Word on a child's level: reading the Sunday Scriptures, assisting the children to understand their meaning, leading the young people in a Child's Creed and Prayers of the Faithful. Children's Liturgy of the Word takes place during the 11:00 a.m. Sunday Mass. CLW leaders MUST have required clearances. Training is provided. If you can help, contact Irene at 899-6132 or ilucas@ourladyofmercychurch.org.

The Question-Of-The-Week Contest Winner

SAVE THE DATE: OLM Festival Sunday, July 8

Each year as we begin to prepare for the festival, we try to make things better than the previous year. This year I would like to hear from you, members of our community, regarding the following: What prizes would you like to see (maybe a Dyson vacuum)? What would enhance our festival? What would you like to do to help make this festival better? What are your concerns about our festival? Please either visit the Our Lady of Mercy Facebook page and answer the questions or send your responses to jayness@gmail.com

If you are a current co-coordinator and have not heard from me, please send me an email with your commitment for another great year! If you are interested in apprenticing for a co-coordinator position, please also let me know. If you would like to continue with the same volunteer job you had last year, please reach out to the coordinator of that area or to me. If you cannot volunteer, please offer prayers for all our co-coordinators!

We need you, our faith community, to help in the following areas:

- Community Advertisers: Please tell your friends about our festival and plan to attend! Flyers to post at your work will be available starting in May.
- Selling of Raffle Tickets: Raffle tickets will be available in June! Help us by selling to your friends and family!
- Volunteers, volunteers, and more volunteers! Sign-ups will be posted during the last Sunday in May
- Chinese Auction (items, baskets, and completed baskets)

Free Online Correspondence Course

The Missouri Knights of Columbus and the Vincentian Community have developed a Catholic Home Study Service. The Catholic Home Study Service offers free correspondence courses on the Catholic Faith. A list of the courses may be found at Catholic Home Study. When people enroll (either by mail or via the Internet), you will receive the requested book and workbook for the course. Call 573-547-4084 to order materials by phone. Students may give answers to the workbook questions over the Internet or by mail. When they finish a course, they receive a certificate of completion and may take other courses.

Knights of Columbus Scholarships

Applications are available on the OLM website or in the parish office. Along with an application, a brief essay is required and a certified, and sealed, transcript from the applicant's school. The transcript does not need to include the final grading period. The scholarships are open to college-bound, graduating high school seniors who, along with their parents are members of OLM. The deadline for the applications is Friday, May 18.

OLM Book Group

The days are getting longer. Time to come out of hibernation. Why not spend an evening around great book talk with a glass of wine. Whether you are interested in joining a book group or just want to talk about one particular title, the door is open to you. On Wednesday, May 16 at 7:00 p.m., we will gather at the home of Irene (1019 Bartlett Rd) to discuss Before We Were Yours by Lisa Wingate. Our June title will be Pachinko by Min Jin Lee.

Cooking for Crowds

This workshop is a volunteer's guide to safe food handling and will be held on Wednesday, June 13 from 6:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. at the Albion Volunteer fire Department, 19 Smock Ave., Albion, 16401. The cost is $25 for an individual, $50 for a group of four people and $5 each for any additional registrants. ## Women's Luncheon

Celebrate Spring with a group of ladies who live alone on Monday, May 21 at 1:00 p.m. at the Fiddle Inn. Great fellowship and laughter is part of every lunch. After the long winter we could benefit from seeing a friendly face and good conversation. Questions: Call Donna in the parish office 899-5342.

Hospital Visitation

We don't always get accurate reports of who is in the hospital because of the change in policy for the local hospitals. If you know of a parishioner who is in the hospital please call the parish office to let us know.

Hearing Assisted Sound System

If you have difficulty hearing during Mass contact a staff member who can assist you with getting a receiver and ear piece.

Parents of Toddlers or Nursing Babies

We always love to have children in church but sometimes an energetic toddler needs to move around. If that is the case, we have the Gathering Space or if you want a contained room, try the Nursery that has closed circuit TV so you can still see and hear Mass. It is available for all Masses. The Nursery is located in the school classroom area, the first door on the right past the Parish Parlor. The 11:00 a.m. Mass has a schedule of parents who take turns in the Nursery so other parents can be spiritually renewed at Mass without having to worry about their children. For more information, see Donna Clark or Peggy Williams.

Whether you want to know how to start a regular practice of prayer or desire to bring your life of prayer to a deeper level, this is for you. Beginning May 31 and continuing for 8 weeks, OLM will hold a weekly course on prayer entitled Oremus.
