ALL SAINTS DAY - ALL SOULS DAY

This Thursday, November 1st, is the Feast of All Saints, when we celebrate those who are in the presence of Almighty God. It is a Holy Day of Obligation. Holy Day Masses are Thursday at 8:30 a.m. and 7 p.m. Friday is All Souls Day when we remember all our deceased. Mass is at 8:30 a.m.

THIS SUNDAY'S REFLECTION

Mark 10:46-52

Jesus didn't seek the office of high priest to glorify himself but to become God's servant. As our representative before God's throne of mercy, Jesus deals patiently with our human weakness because he himself was beset by human suffering.

Jeremiah didn't aspire to be a prophet. He didn't feel qualified, because he didn't see things the way other prophets did. While they told the people, "Peace and prosperity are just around the corner," Jeremiah warned them that famine and exile would be their fate. Jeremiah suffered because of his message. Despite his trials, God's servant comforted people with a promise of restoration. Although they went forth weeping, the people would return rejoicing. Those who were outcast, the weak, the lame and the blind, would be in their midst.

At times we are completely blind to Jesus's message. We are like those who told blind Bartimaeus to be quiet when he cried out to Jesus for mercy, "I want to see!" Bartimaeus was healed because of his faith, and he followed Jesus down the road as a true disciple, not toward fame and glory but toward suffering and the cross.

For Reflection: What are the blind spots in my Christian service?

Book Group

Longer autumn nights and cooler, wetter autumn days are the perfect excuse to get lost in a good book. And a good book is made even better by sharing it with friends. Our November book will be Rose Kennedy: The Life and Times of a Political Matriarch by Barbara Perry. Because of Thanksgiving, we will meet on November 28 at 7p.m.

Day of Reflection

There will be a special Day of Reflection for all adults in the parish, especially those in ministries of leadership. This day off reflection will take place on Saturday, Nov. 3 from 9:00-1:00. ## NEW! Social Media Committee

Have you ever wanted to join a ministry, but felt more comfortable being "behind the scenes"? This is the perfect opportunity for you! OLM has formed a new committee focused on Social Media. The goal of the Social Media

Committee is to bring the "social" aspect into our already established Social Media pages. We will be working with Facebook and Twitter and would like to establish a presence on Instagram and YouTube as well. If you feel like you could contribute to the parish through this new ministry, please call Katie or Irene in the Parish Office for more information. Our next meeting is Tuesday November 13th at 5:30 p.m.

Special need of the Food Pantry

One of our families of five has three members who are gluten free. Because we do not get large amounts of gluten free food, we try to give this family a gift card. If you are able, please donate a gift card to Aldi's to the food pantry.

Parking at OLM

Some of our older parishioners are looking for parking spaces closer to the door, especially for the 6pm Saturday Mass and the 11AM Sunday Mass. Although they are not officially listed as handicapped, they are unable to walk great distances. If you can walk easily, please consider parking a little further away from the doors to leave a few non-handicapped spaces open for our older parishioners who come just before Mass. This would be particularly helpful especially during the winter months.

Liturgy ~~is~~ Life

"Liturgy is Life", a four-week interactive, educational, and spiritual look at the Mass continues TOMORROW evening, Monday, October 29 at 7p.m. in the chapel. Please consider attending this experience, present by Brandon Vogt.

Tomorrow's presentation is "The Communion and Sending Rites"
